

David Blackwood - Curriculum Vitae

2003 -2008: Honorary Chair, Art Gallery of Ontario

2003: Appointed to the Order of Ontario in recognition of service of great distinction which has enriched the life of the province

Recipient Queen Elizabeth II Golden Jubilee Medal

2001: 'DAVID BLACKWOOD: MASTER PRINTMAKER' author William Gough with an appreciation by E Annie Proulx (Douglas & McIntyre)

2000: The Art Gallery of Ontario announces a major gift of prints from David and Anita Blackwood. This gift makes the AGO collection the 'collection of record' for the artist's work and creates a centre for the study of his prints.

1993: Appointed to the Order of Canada in recognition of outstanding contribution to the artistic and cultural life of Canada

1992: Official opening of 'The Blackwood Gallery' Erindale College
University of Toronto at Mississauga
Awarded Honorary Degree, Doctor of Laws, University of Calgary
Awarded Honorary Degree, Doctor of Letters, Memorial University

1988: 'THE ART OF DAVID BLACKWOOD' author William Gough (McGraw Hill Ryerson)

1974: Subject of National Film Board of Canada production 'BLACKWOOD', recipient of 10 international film awards including Academy of Arts and Sciences (Oscar) nomination in 1976 for Best Documentary

1973: Co-authored with Farley Mowat 'WAKE OF THE GREAT SEALERS' (McClelland & Stewart)

1971: Founded Erindale College Art Gallery

1969-75: Artist in Residence, Erindale College, University of Toronto

1964: Purchase Award, Biennial Exhibition, National Gallery of Canada

1963-88: Art Master at Trinity College School, Port Hope

1963: Ontario College of Art Honours Diploma (Drawing & Painting)
Awarded OCA traveling scholarship to study major collections in the USA
Awarded Government of France (Ingres) Medal

1959: Awarded Government of Newfoundland Centennial Scholarship

1941: Born in Wesleyville, Bonavista Bay, Newfoundland